A few city highlights...

Anchorage – situated on beautiful Cook Inlet, Alaska's largest city provides a hub of activity.

Seward – the gateway to Kenai Fjords National Park. A perfect setting for up-close wildlife viewing and glacier-carved fjords along a stunning coastline.

Denali National Park – home to Mt. McKinley, North America's tallest mountain, and offers the best opportunity to view amazing wildlife. A must-see destination to unwind and relax while visiting Alaska.

Fairbanks – step back in time to the gold rush era visiting Alaska's Golden Heart city, only 200 miles from the Arctic Circle.

Dawson City – turn back the clock and explore a replica of Jack London's cabin, or gold rush historic sites.

Juneau – Alaska's state capital offers a variety of adventures

Skagway – explore shops along wooden sidewalks, then take a ride aboard the famed White Pass & Yukon Route railroad
